Proposed by Independent German

Democrats on the East Side,
A movement, at the head of which are exAlderman Flegenheimer and Otto Kempiaer, of the Tenth Assembly District, has been set on foot to organize the German-American voters of the east side as an independent Cleveland and Stevenson Campaign Club.
It is in contemplation to make a semi-military organization of the Club after it is formed, to be called the German Cleveland Regiment of New York, with a proposed memberahip of 1,000.
The proposition has met with enthusiastic support, and next Wednesday evening a mass-meeting will be heid at Beethoven Hall, when volunteers will be enrolled.

So grand was the singing and so powerful its influence that the participants themselves were moved and with relutance turned to the exercises of the "Pastor's Hour," conducted by Rev. B. B. Tyler, D. D., President of the New York Christian Endeavor Union.

Dr. Tyler is a white-baired, kindly-faced old man with a keen sense of humor as well as a dignified and carnest demeaner.

He announced that clerical representatives of different denominations would be given just two minutes each lo tell what their denominations thought or the Christian Endeavor Union with the gavel containing wood and stone from the Williston Church at Portland, Me, where the hirst Christian Endeavor Society was founded.

Daniel Haller man Martin, of the Sewark Reformed thurch, who ceased speaking fitteen seconds before his time was up and was tremendously applicated for his witty remarks, proclaiming his church as the original christian Endeavor Society because the old Dutch Church was the first on Manhattan Island and the first in the country.

The laugh was on Dr. Tyler, but he quickly turned it by shouting:

"You herer know what is coming next in New York, and when you least expect it you are sure to be taken in.
